

ENTRY FORM 2018

The DStv Eutelsat Star Awards are positioned to be Africa's leading satellite technology awards for young minds.

The primary aim is to stimulate interest and passion for satellite technology among young people.

The competition is organised by MultiChoice Africa and Eutelsat and entrants are required to write an essay or produce a poster on the following topic:

Currently, satellites are being used in a variety of ways but there is always room for expansion and growth. Write an essay or design a poster on areas you believe the full potential of satellites has not yet been tapped into or embraced.

HOW TO ENTER

You may post your entry to your nearest MultiChoice office or hand it in personally at one of the country offices specified on this entry form (only submit entries to country offices specified on this entry form). Only South African entrants may hand their entries in to MultiChoice Africa, Corporate Affairs, 251 Oak Avenue, Randburg, Johannesburg or post them to MultiChoice Africa, Corporate Affairs, 251 Oak Avenue, Randburg, Johannesburg, Attention: Lebogang Ramothata. Entries must reach the collection points by 12 October 2018– no late entries will be accepted. If you have any queries please contact your local MultiChoice office or email us at: Dstvstarawards@multichoice.co.za

All entries must be clearly labeled with the name of the entrant and school and be accompanied by the entry form.

Overall Poster Award.....	A trip for the winning student and their parent/legal to the MultiChoice offices and the South African Space Agency at Hartbeesthoek
Overall Essay School Award.....	A DStv installation, including a dish, TV, decoder and free access to the DStv Education Bouquet
Overall Poster School Award.....	A DStv installation, including a dish, TV, decoder and free access to the DStv Education Bouquet

* The prizes to France and South Africa include return travel costs from outbound destination, accommodation, transfers, meals for two people. Minors are obliged to be accompanied by and remain in the permanent care of an adult legal guardian/parent. Travel is in economy class.

5. COMPETITION RULES:

- > Entries will be accepted in hard copy format only
- > Entries from previous country or overall award winners will not be accepted
- > Entry forms must be fully completed. Entries accompanied by incomplete entry forms may not be accepted
- > Only entries with attached entry forms will be accepted. It is the responsibility of the entrant to ensure that forms and in the case of posters, creative rationales/summaries, are attached in such a way that they do not become separated from the entry submission. In cases where entries and attachments become separated, such entries may be disqualified
- > All poster entries have to be accompanied by a creative explanation/summary as specified in the criteria for posters section above

- > To enter, students need to be between 14 and 19 years of age and enrolled at a registered secondary, combined or high school (public or private). Only entries prepared by an individual will be accepted
- > Entry forms and essays/posters must be submitted before the closing date and time. It is the responsibility of the entrants to ensure that entries reach designated collection points prior to the closure of the competition. Any entries not received prior to the closure of the competition will not be eligible to participate, regardless of the reason for the late entry. MultiChoice and Eutelsat are not responsible for any entries which are not received, whether timeously or at all, regardless of the cause thereof. Without limitation, MultiChoice and Eutelsat are not responsible for any problems or technical malfunction of any telephone network or lines, computer on-line systems, servers, or providers, computer hardware or software failure or malfunction, postal systems, traffic congestion (whether physical, postal or on the Internet, telephone lines or at any service provider, web site or other device or medium), or any combination thereof, or any other technical problems
- > Only one entry, i.e. either poster or essay, may be submitted per student on the specified topic
- > Entries can be prepared in English, French or Portuguese only
- > Entries must be the own original work of the student
- > Any costs or expenses which the entrant incurs other than in respect of those items specifically included in a prize are for the entrant's own account. It is assumed that entrants will have sufficient funds available for all costs and expenses which they may incur during and for purposes of entry into the competition
- > No previously published material will be accepted
- > Only entries in the correct and specified formats will be eligible
- > Plagiarism is forbidden. Entrants may quote short passages, but material copied from a source must be surrounded in double quotes ("") and the source indicated. Copied materials should rarely be more than a few lines, and never as long as a paragraph. Quoting long passages is forbidden. Entries caught plagiarizing will be rejected
- > "Plagiarism is when you take someone else's writing or ideas without acknowledging it. In the past many great entries have been disqualified because they contain portions of text which was copied directly from the internet or another source. Also remember to provide references for any pictures and/or diagrams that you have not developed yourself. All finalist entries will be subjected to stringent plagiarism checks to ensure that all content is original or quoted and attributed to the author where appropriate. Any entries failing this test will be disqualified from the awards."
- > All entries must include a full bibliography of sources for the essay. The bibliography should be excluded from the essay word count.
- > The bibliography should be the last page of the essay. In the case of poster entries, the entry form, as well as a creative explanation/summary (inclusive of any sources consulted) must be attached to the poster
- > Entries cannot be returned to participants
- > All the submitted essays and posters will be the property of the organisers. The organisers reserve the right to modify the format and content of any submitted essay or poster before publication. Also note that the organisers have the sole right to publish the submissions in any media
- > Participants agree to the publication of their names and to appear in the electronic media and the print media, and agree, within reason, to endorse, promote or advertise the organisers' goods or services, for which no fee will be payable
- > The organisers reserve the right not to award any particular prize, if no entry is found fitting for that particular prize
- > Please note that the rocket launch may be cancelled or delayed due to reasons beyond MultiChoice and Eutelsat's control. This may result in the best overall entry award winner visiting the spaceport facility but not being able to witness a live launch as planned. In the event that the live rocket launch is cancelled or delayed, you and your travel partner (if applicable) indemnify and hold the organisers harmless against any claim of any nature, arising in relation to entry in the competition and acceptance of the best overall entry award
- > The decision of our Panel of Judges will be final and is not subject to an appeal with regard to the selection of winning essays and posters as well as the selection of essays and posters meeting the minimum qualification criteria
- > Members of staff of the organisers and their direct family members are not eligible to participate in the awards
- > Winners must possess whatever documents and permissions that may be required in order to accept the travel prize, including a valid passport and all necessary visa and travel documentation, which documents and permissions it is their responsibility to obtain at their own cost, and which documents and permissions must remain valid in such minimum form and for such minimum period after the prize date as may be required by the relevant authorities
- > The organisers will provide administrative assistance in applying for the travel visa for the overall winners if applicable
- > MultiChoice and Eutelsat will not be responsible, and disclaim all liability, for any loss, liability, injury, expense or damage (whether direct, indirect, incidental, punitive or consequential) of any nature, whether arising from negligence or any other cause, which is suffered by participation in the competition or the acceptance and/or use by the participant, or their travel partner (if applicable), of any prize, or by any action taken by MultiChoice and Eutelsat in accordance with these terms and conditions
- > The participants indemnify and hold MultiChoice and Eutelsat harmless against any claim by the participants, or their travel partner (if applicable), (whether direct, indirect, incidental, punitive or consequential) of any nature, whether arising from negligence or any other cause, relating to any injury, loss, liability, expense and/or damage which they may suffer, howsoever arising, in relation to their participation in the competition and/or acceptance and/or use of a prize
